THE UNION PRIES STATIONERS AND RECIPE PAGRAGES.
We have been shown a package of Stationery and Jewelp put up by Messre. Rickards & Co., of No. 162 Nassau street and must express our surprise at the quantity and quality the articles they give for 25 cens. We must concess we we skeptical at first, but seeing is believing. There is no seer in their trade. As they are largely engaged in the manufaure of jewelry, and purchase all their other articles feasib, they manage, by their large sales and strict business itegrity, to make a small profit on each package. There is meed of our citizens going to stationery stores when the wan small quantities, and plying exordiant prices, which wan small quantities, and plying exordiant prices, which years got a dollar's worth for twenty-five cents.
